

The Word made Flesh
In the Person of Christ

John I. 14. 8. 6.

1. What angel can the grace explain!
The very God is very man,
By love paternal given;
Begins the uncreated word,
Born is the everlasting Lord,
Who made both earth and heaven.
2. Behold him high above all height,
Heim, God of God, and light of light
In a mean earthly shrine;
Jehovah's glory dwelt with men,
The Person in our flesh is seen,
The character divine!
3. Not with these eyes of flesh and blood;
Yet so, we still behold the God,
Replete with truth and grace;
The truth of holiness we see,
The truth of full felicity,
In our Redeemer's face.
4. Transformed by the catatic sight,
Our souls overflow with pure delight,
And every moment own
The Lord our whole perfection is,
The Lord is our immortal bliss,
And Christ and heaven are one.
