

Miss Wesley,
Sir Sydney Smith,
The Care of Dover,
Kent.

My Dear Sarah,

Maybom. 9th June. -

I thank you for your epistle, and am really much obliged for Mr. Delamain's kind message. - many years ago I remember Mr. Poyntz with the late Earl of Sandwich, and if any vacancy should happen in the Gift of the great Peers, in the Proprietary way, it would be doing "a good deed" if that Gentleman would honour an insignificant Antedeluvian, by speaking a word in his favour. Mrs. Chambers call'd on us yesterday far from well. Dr. Osborn is at her house in Seymour Street, my tad with his finger. Mrs. C. says "she cannot prevail on the Doctor to stay long in London. - and lamented she could only have a Glimpse of Mr. D. and you at Dover. Little Charles hath written a kind Letter to his Father, and we think, hath got his Petition granted. - next Monday, I am invited by Lord Mount Norris, and the heads of the Church, to perform on Mrs. Wadley's fine Organ in Ealing Church. It is to be all Handel, and Ancient Music. They all wish a certain Great Personage, could honor it with his Presence. - It is not far from New Palace, I hear.

I am invited to Gloster house, next week, to hear a Young Lady, sing, a Daughter of one of the Pages, and I mean to go. - what warm weather we have had. Thank God, it is cooked, and all is well if we can only wait, I never wish to murmur. I have nothing else around me here, tho' I keep mostly to my own Room, except when I attend my Pupils.

Mr. P's Family are gone to their seat in Hert.
I have not many left in Town now. When you come back. You will wonder at what I can inform you in many circumstances that have occurred here - Mr. Coates little Girl, comes as usual, full of gra-titude - Mrs. Williams is going to Dunstable - Mr. Jenner has been very ill - Mr. Deane, has not been here this week - Mr. Tomson, generally calls most days. I went to Mr. Leet's Concert with Miss Spence, and Mr. Clark's 2. Daughters.

My Mother is tolerable in health - Mrs. Foot, and her Niece David here, last Monday, young Mr. McDuke Corbett, came to Tea.
My Brother <sup>had</sup> taken him <sup>3rd time</sup> with him in his peregrination.
I really cannot walk with him, I think 10. miles at one time, is too much for a poor man. The wonder is that I am - I never tire - I would, he were happy. - only one thing is needed to make us contented - and that he hath not, poor Man, I advise, ever affectionately yours
E.W.

I told our Friend Keene & Family, he is going to Kent, and says "perhaps he may return with you." he is going to his near North End, Hammenham.

My best Respect to all your circle at the Carr. Thank Sir J. & Mrs. for the favour of his Frank. - I cannot get one for this. Mr. Barwell not having asked. - I hope you will make out this last writing. I am expecting a person to call - It will be much trouble I have to go through on Thursday, tho' I am fond of playing with a Band you know!

Goodnow is returned to his Chapel, w<sup>ch</sup> I am glad of. - (Could you let Mr. Maud know of) The Musical Evening is it not in her Neighbourhood? - When you come back if (Mr. C. will permit) I <sup>shall</sup> like to go to see:
When she goes to Wales. Adieu all my Littlest I beg!

on my Father's.

Marybone. 9th June

My Dear Sarah,

I thank you for your epistle, and am really much obliged for Mrs. Delamain's kind message. Many years ago I remember Mr. Poyntz with the late Earl of Sandwhich and if any vacancy should happen in the Gift of the great People in the Professional way, it would be "doing a good deed" if that Gentleman would honour an insignificant Antedeluvian, by speaking a word in his favour. Mrs. Chambers called on us yesterday far from well. Dr. Osborn is at her house in Seymour Forest, very bad with his finger. Mrs. C. says, "she cannot prevail on the Doctor to stay long in London and lamented she could only have a glimpse of Mrs. D. and you at Derrs. Little Charles hath written a kind letter to his father, and we think, hath got his Petition granted. Next Thursday, I am invited by Lord Mount Norris, and the heads of the Church to perform on Mrs. Udny's fine organ in Ealing Church. It is to be all Handel and Antient Musick. They all wish a certain great personage could honor it with his Presence.- it is not far from the Kew Palace [Theater?]. I am invited to Glother House next week to hear a young lady sing, a daughter of one of the pages, and I mean to go. What warm weather we have had. Thank God it is cooler, and all is best if we can only wait, I never wish to murmur. I have nothing [chr] around me here, tho' I keep mostly to my own room, except when I attend my pupils. The Py family are gone to their seat in Herth. I have not many left in town now. When you come back you will wonder at what I can inform you in many circumstances that have occurred here. Mr. Couies little girl comes as usual full of gratitude. Mr. Williams is going to Dunstable. Mr. Tenner has been very ill. Mr. Tomson generally calls most days. I went to Mr Lee's concert with Miss Spencer and Mr. Clarke's 2 daughters. My mother is tolerable in health. Mrs. Foote and her niece dined here. Last Monday, young Mr. M. Duke Corthet came to tea. My brother has taken him 3 times with him in his peregrination. I really cannot walk with him. I think 10 mile at one time is too much for a fat man. The wonder is that Sam is never tired. I would he were happy. Only one thing is needful to make us contented and that he hath not, poor fellow, Adieu,

Am affectionately yours,
CW.

I [checked] on friend Keens and family. He is going to Shant and says "perhaps he may return with you." He is going to his [mar?] North End, Hammersmith.

My best respects to all your circle at the Carrs. Thank Sir Sidney for the favour of his [nk]. I cannot get one for this, Mr. Barwell not having called. I hope you will make out this bad writing. I am expecting a person to call. It will be much trouble I hear to go through on Thursday, tho' I am fond of playing with a band you know! Goodnow is returned to his chapel which I am glad of. Could you let Mr. Mared know of the music at Ealing. Is it not in his neighborhood? When you come back if (Mrs. C: will permit) [ ] like to go to Unc: when she goes to Wales. Destroy all my Letters I beg!

Snumon Farewell!
